

Transactions of Carlisle Natural History Society

Volume I (1909)

A Bygone Cumberland Naturalist, A Memoir of T.C. Heysham - James Murray.	1-12
Westmorland Ornithological Notes, 1907 - W.E.B. Dunlop	13-23
Mammals of the Eden Valley – H. Britten	24-30
Plant life around Carlisle, part I, - Thos. Scott Johnstone	31-48
The Wading Birds of the Solway – T.L. Johnston	49-62
The Fauna of Cumberland in relation to its Physical Geography – Frank H. Day	63-74
The Gulls and Diving Birds of the Solway – Linnaeus E. Hope	75-97
The Butterflies of Cumberland – George B. Routledge	98-113
The Land and Freshwater Shells of Cumberland – James Murray	114-121
The Coleoptera of Cumberland, part 1 – Frank H. Day	122-150

Volume II (1912)

H.A. Macpherson M.B.O.U., a memoir – Linnaeus E. Hope	1-13
The Mineral of Cumberland – J.W. Branston	14-29
The Arachnids (Spiders etc) of Cumberland – H. Britten	30-65
Plant Life around Carlisle, part II – Thos. Scott Johnstone	66-88
The natural history of the Peregrine Falcon, Eric B. Dunlop	89-93
The Lepidoptera of Cumberland (part II, Moths) – George B. Routledge	94-183
The Ducks and Geese ( Anseres ) of the Solway – Linnaeus E. Hope	184-200
The Coleoptera of Cumberland, part II – Frank H. Day	201-256

Volume III (1923)

Addenda to Macpherson's "Vertebrate Fauna of Lakeland" (Birds) – Eric B. Dunlop (with appendix by Linnaeus E. Hope)	1-39
The Lepidoptera of Cumberland, part III, Geometrae – George B. Routledge	40-69
The Coleoptera of Cumberland, part III, conclusion – Frank H. Day	70-107

Volume IV (1928)

William Hodgson A.L.S., Botanist – James Murray	1-15
On the Raven – E. Blezard	16-22
The Lepidoptera of Cumberland, part IV (Moths) – George B. Routledge	23-65
Some notes on the Minerals of the Caldbeck Fells – F.H. Day Jun. B.Sc.	66-79
Local Wildfowl (Ducks and Geese) – Ritson Graham	80-104
The Orthoptera of Cumberland – George B. Routledge	105-107
The Hemiptera-Heteroptera of Cumberland – Frank H. Day	108-130
Cumberland Odonata (Dragonflies) – Frank H. Day	131-134
Further Addenda to the Coleoptera of Cumberland – Frank H. Day	135-136

Volume V (1933)

History of the Society – Frank H. Day	1-13
Birds in Carlisle – B. Johnston	14-25
Mammals in Carlisle – B. Johnston	26-30
Collecting at light in the Carlisle District – H. D. Ford	31-38
Trees in Carlisle – Dorothy Stewart	39-43
The Neuroptera etc and Trichoptera of Cumberland, Westmorland and North Lancashire – George B. Routledge	44-60
On the Buzzard – E. Blezard	61-66
The Barnacle Goose on the English Solway – T.L. Johnston	67-82
Cumberland Aculeate Hymenoptera – George B. Routledge	83-103
The Roe Deer in Cumberland – Ritson Graham	104-116
Further Addenda to the Coleoptera of Cumberland – Frank H. Day	117-125
The Lepidoptera of Cumberland, additional species and further records - George B. Routledge	126-143

Volume VI (1943) *The Birds of Lakeland

– Ernest Blezard (Editor), Marjory Garnett, Ritson Graham, Tom L. Johnston	1-165
--	-------

Volume VII (1946) Lakeland Natural History, E. Blezard (Ed.)

Aviation and ornithology in Lakeland – Flt-Ltnt. R.A. Carr-Lewty	1-28
Lakeland and the Ice Age – T.W.K. Skelly	29-48
Winter birds on Windermere, a retrospect – Marjory Garnett	49-70
Creeping Lady's Tresses in Cumberland – Dorothy Blezard	71-74
The Grey Lag Goose in Lakeland – Tom L. Johnston	75-87
The Badger in Cumberland – Ritson Graham	88-99
The Lakeland Pennines and their birds – Ernest Blezard	100-115
A round on Westmorland moors – Walter Thompson	116-117
The progress of natural history in Cumberland – F.H. Day	118-130
The birds of Lakeland, a supplement – E. Blezard	131-149

Volume VIII (1954) Lakeland Ornithology, E. Blezard (Ed.)

Tom Little Johnston, 1875-1948 – E. Blezard	5-7
The Greater Black-backed Gull on the Cumberland Solway – Tom L. Johnston	8-13
North-eastern Bird studies: the Curlew and the Black Grouse – Matthew Philipson	14-22
The warblers – Robert H. Brown	23-74
Siddick Pond and its birds – Ralph Stokoe	33-74
Food of birds – Ernest Blezard	75-101
The Birds of Lakeland: a second supplement – E. Blezard	102-135
The Presidents of the Carlisle Natural History Society	136
List of members of the Carlisle Natural History Society	137-141

Volume IX (1958) Lakeland Birds , E. Blezard (Ed.)
The Birds of Lakeland: a third supplement – E. Blezard	7-54
Food of birds – E. Blezard	55-62
Volume X (1962) Birds of the Lake Counties , Ralph Stokoe
Birds of the Lake Counties – R. Stokoe	13-112
Bird migration at Grune Point – R. Stokoe	113-128
Food of birds – Ernest Blezard	129-136
Volume XI (1967) Lakeland Molluscs
A preliminary list of the marine mollusc of Lakeland – Marjory Garnett and Mary M. Milne	11-47
Non-marine Mollusca of Lakeland: notes on their distribution and the Occurrence of molluscs in the food of birds – Ernest Blezard	48-74
Volume XII (1996) Cumbrian Wildlife in the 20th Century , D.J. Clarke & S.M. Hewitt (Eds.)
Changes in Cumbria's flora in the 20 th Century – Geoffrey Halliday	5-14
Cumbrian butterflies since 1893 – Geoff Naylor	15-26
Dragonflies in Cumbria, a centenary review – David Clarke	27-38
Beetles and beetle recording in Cumbria – Roger Key	39-50
Birds of prey in Cumbria – Geoffrey Horne	51-76
Mammals in Cumbria, a centenary review – John Webster	77-88
Wildlife and its conservation in Cumbria – Derek Ratcliffe	89-106
Carlisle Natural History Society, the first hundred years – Stephen Hewitt	107-126
Ernest Blezard (1902-1970) – Derek Ratcliffe	127-132